ST. MARY'S ACADEMY

Legacy Rose Garden

You are invited to be a part of commemorating St. Mary's Academy's 150 year legacy. Maison Ste Marie was established in 1869 by the Sisters of Charity of Montréal (more commonly known as the Grey Nuns). The Sisters of the Holy Names of Jesus and Mary assumed responsibility of St. Mary's Academy in 1874. Purchase a brick, stone, bench or a "decade" of roses for this green space and choose an inscription of your choice.

• Engraved roman paver bricks will line the walkway of the garden. Your purchase of a brick for $200 will be recognized with an inscription of your choice.

• Engraved flagstone paving stones will line the circular rotunda near the porch steps. Your purchase of a stone for $400 will be recognized with an inscription of your choice.

• 150 red roses will be the focal point of this garden beside the porch of the historic 1902 building. Your purchase of a decade of roses for $1000 will be recognized on the Legacy Rose Garden plaque.

• Concrete benches will line the pathway of the rose garden. Your purchase of a bench for $3000 will be recognized on the Legacy Rose Garden plaque.
