

SMA Daily Bulletin March 14, 2019 Day 4

Welcome to Week 1 of Lent! Have you ever been tempted to do something you know is not right? Take the easy road (like "lift" a thought or quote in a paper and say it is yours)? Or dump plans with a friend for someone else who is cooler? Likely we can all say we have been tempted and we can take comfort knowing that Jesus was tempted too. The key to resisting the temptation is knowing who you are. Jesus had just been baptized and then went into the desert where he was tempted. He knew he was God's beloved son. That was his strength in facing the temptations. He did not have anything to prove because he knew he was beloved. Just as it was for MMR, she knew she was beloved. She was aware of her limitations, and she knew her identity. Do we see ourselves as beloved, as God's daughters and sons? If we do, we would be able to respond to the temptations by being true to who we are and being faithful to who God is calling us to be. Remember we are sharing the journey to the cross TOGETHER!
