

Preparing to celebrate our legacy

SMA Daily Bulletin
May 15, 2019 Day 5

What's the GOOD NEWS/CHARISM CORNER...The 4th Sunday of Easter is often called Good Shepherd Sunday. The Shepherd knows the flock and the flock know the voice of the Shepherd. Pope Francis invites shepherds to "smell like the sheep", in other words to be like them and not above them. Jesus did just that. He was among the flock – he ate with them, prayed with them, laughed and even mourned with them. On May 1st at our Birthday party and on May 11 at the Marian Awards for Excellence, we heard how the Grey Nuns and the SNJM were shepherds to their flocks in their ministries, whether it was education or healthcare. In what ways do we lead like a Good Shepherd? Take time this week to reflect on how you can be more like Jesus when you exercise leadership.

This week is the WEEK OF LIFE AND FAMILY...what a wonderful time of year to be pausing to honor, celebrate and remember how precious life is. With so many signs of new life around us, take time to say thanks to God for the gift of the life you have and the lives of those who support you. Let's not take life for granted. It is a gift from God meant to be shared. How do you share life with others? How can you honor the gift of life this week?

Wednesday morning Mass: Please join us in the Holy Names Chapel at 8 a.m. with 8-1 leading our ministries for our last Wednesday of the year. We welcome our presider Fr. Eric Zadji. All welcome.
