

SMA Daily Bulletin October 12, 2018 Day 5

What's' the GOOD NEWS...It's all about how we treat one another – it's all about the relationship. This weekend, on Thanksgiving, though the Gospel was a bit odd as it shared the Pharisees trying to catch Jesus and so they ask him about divorce. Jesus, once again reminds them, and us, to think about how we treat people. Do we use them and then when we have what we want or someone better comes along, we toss them away? The bar to discipleship is higher than that. We are called to ponder the relationships we get into and ask ourselves, does this person bring out the best in me and make me a better person? Can I be myself with them or am I always pretending to be someone I am not? The law of love that Jesus is challenging us to is to treat others with respect and dignity and that begins with ourselves.

CHARISM CORNER...Well, a big THANK YOU to everyone who participated in MMR week – by joining the activities, teaching lessons, celebrating together at Mass or meeting your prayer pals. Speaking of Prayer Pals...Everyone in the school has an SNJM prayer pal. AND the SNJM have SMA praying for them, too! SO, if your reps have not shared the prayer pal card with your class, please ask then about it and start to connect with your prayer pal through email, remembering her in your class prayer, sending a picture of your class to her, inviting her in for a visit or arranging a video call. Let's keep the spirit alive!
